Some Rigidity Issues In LP Polygon

Nasiruddin Khan

Department of Mathematics, University of Karachi, Pakistan

prof.drkhan@yahoo.com

The Linear Programming polygon is an undirected and without loop graph denoted by (V, E) with vertices V and edges E and the framework of the LP polygon is (V, E, p). Some combinatorial issues of LP polygon are unfolded by the properties of rigidity matrix of the polygon.

This is a joint work with Ali Dino Jumani.